

Learn More About Eric Bolves...

Admitted to Practice

- Florida Supreme Court, 1983
- United States District Court, 1983
- Administrative Law Court of the Social Security Administration, 1998

Education

- Juris Doctor, University of Florida Law School, 1981. Honors in Legal Writing
- Juris Doctor Certificate in Latin American Studies, University of Florida. Founder and first recipient, 1981
- Mexican Legal Studies, Escuela Libre de Derecho, Mexico City, 1979
- Bachelor of Arts, Political Science, University of Florida, 1977

Career Highlights

- Attorney/Guardian Ad Litem in over 2,000 foreclosure cases in every county in the state of Florida since 1995
- Filed over 4,500 bankruptcies for business and individuals since 1988
- Represented over 4,000 claimants before the Social Security Administration
- Active participant in the Mortgage Modification Mediation Program in the Middle District of Florida Bankruptcy Court
- Recognized as one of the most prolific and popular presenters of Continuing Legal Education seminars in the country

Organizations and Affiliations

- Florida Bar Association
- National Organization of Social Security Claimants Representatives
- National Association of Bankruptcy Trustees, Former Member
- National Aviation Safety Foundation, Founding Director and Legal Counsel
- Florida Association of Flight Instructors, Founding Director and Legal Counsel.

Languages

Bilingual and biliterate in English, Spanish

Personal

Eric and his family moved to Orlando when he was a boy. Eric and his wife, Lea, are parents of five grown children. When not in Orlando, they enjoy the peaceful solitude of their home in the Blue Ridge Mountains.